

2010 ITHIEL CONRAD CLEMMONS STUDENT TRAVEL AWARD

2010 SPS Annual Meeting – Minneapolis, Minnesota

March 04-06, 2010

Application Deadline: December 15, 2009

The Committee on Diversity offers three scholarships for minority students and women attending the SPS Annual Meeting at North Central University in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Students belonging to a racial/ethnic minority group (defined here on the basis of the majority of current SPS membership) and women are invited to apply. Students at all stages of their academic careers are encouraged to apply.

Application/Guidelines:

Financial need and statement of research interests within the field of Pentecostal/Charismatic studies will be used to evaluate the applications. The committee will award only 3 grants this year.

- 1) Scholarships have been designated for members of racial/ethnic minority groups and women.
- 2) Applicants shall submit a 1-page letter of application containing the following:
 - a) name, address, telephone, e-mail, academic affiliation, year in program and SPS membership status;
 - b) statement of financial need;
 - c) statement of research interests and their relation both to conference participation and the larger field of Pentecostal/Charismatic Studies;
 - d) statement that identifies your ethnicity/gender and confirms that you meet the eligibility requirements for this grant.

EMAIL YOUR APPLICATION TO:

Dr. Anjulet Tucker, Vice-Chair, SPS Committee on Diversity, anjulet@bu.edu

For additional comments and inquiries, please email Eric Lewis Williams at elw231@bham.ac.uk Note: the Committee on Diversity requests that all applicants submit their materials by email this year; attachments should be in a standard file format (Microsoft Word docs) and should include as its subject, "Ithiel Clemmons Student Travel Scholarship 2010." For information on student membership, conference fees, and conference program, visit the Society for Pentecostal Studies website at: www.sps-usa.org.

Travel scholarship funds will be issued to recipients upon arrival to the conference. Scholarship amount is $300.00 per recipient.

DEADLINE: Completed application materials must be received by December 15, 2009.